

Please consider that decisions which favor techonolgy best serve the American public. Sensible regulation guides, when necessary, free market forces to maintain and increase diversity in information services. Thank you.